ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Made <http://arjangillsounds.com/> by using online layout and added python based fast api to give the details of product
- Another one is <http://api.arjangillsounds.com/> . Uses the same api to perform data transfer and additional calculations. (User- te, pass- 123456.) Its not smooth due to using the free database provided by godaddy.
- Learning angular and converting the first website into angular based.
